

Dr. Jean-Daniel Rolle,
Professeur

Domaines d'expertise : modélisation statistique, mathématique, économique.

Formation :

- Licence en économie
- Diplôme en mathématiques
- Doctorat en économétrie
- Post-doctorat en statistique (Stanford University, Palo Alto, CA)

Publications scientifiques principales: (statistique, mathématiques, économie) Seules figurent dans cette liste des travaux acceptés pour publication par un comité scientifique ou des referees, avec cession des droits d'auteur.

(Ne figurent pas dans cette liste: deux monographies et des rapports de recherche des universités de Stanford, Cambridge et Genève)

N.B. : Plusieurs de ces travaux firent l'objet d'un financement de la part de la Haute Ecole de Gestion de Fribourg, dans le cadre du financement de la recherche en son sein, qu'elle désire encourager et promouvoir.
